

LIFELIKE AI VOICE. RAPID SCALE.

True-To-Life AI Voice For All Your Voice-Over Needs

Keep up with voice content demands at speed and scale with Veritone Voice, the hyper-realistic, AI voice solution that's changing the enterprise audio game.

HOW IT WORKS

Take control of your voice-over needs with the only end-to-end, multilingual Voice-as-a-Service solution. Produce, edit, distribute, and monetize custom AI voice content quickly and easily using text-to-speech or speech-to-speech input and our intuitive app. Or choose managed service to let our team of experts generate content for you. Either way, you can rapidly scale content production to keep up with demand and reach new markets and audiences.

With Veritone Voice, you're not just getting a point solution—you're getting the full advantage of our aiWARE platform and proven AI expertise. Access powerful enterprise workflows for all your automation needs and integrate Veritone Voice into your tech stack seamlessly using our world-class API. Add your favorite AI voice to any project, app, or solution, and elevate your voice-powered content with on-demand AI audio that actually sounds human.

CREATE PERSONALIZED AUDIO FOR ANY NEED—AT SCALE

Rapidly scale to meet fast-moving audio content demands with Veritone Voice. Choose from 300 stock voices and 70 recognizable premium voices to get started right away. Or create a custom, consent-driven voice clone to synthetically recreate known voice talent including celebrities, broadcasters, athletes and more. Both stock and custom voices can be personalized and localized with just a few clicks—choose the gender, accent, dialect, and language.
